ORDER

This case is before the Court on the defendant's Motion to Continue (Doc. # 46) the trial date. The criminal case is currently set for trial during the April 23, 2007 term. For the reasons set forth below, the Court finds that the trial should be continued pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h).

While the grant of a continuance is left to the sound discretion of the trial judge, United States v. Stitzer, 785 F.2d 1506, 1516 (11th Cir. 1986), the Court is limited by the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161. The Act provides in part:

In any case in which a plea of not guilty is entered, the trial of a defendant charged in an information or indictment with the commission of an offense shall commence within seventy days from the filing date (and making public) of the information or indictment, or from the date the defendant has appeared before a judicial officer of the court in which such charge is pending, whichever date last occurs.

18 U.S.C. § 3161(c)(1). However, the Act excludes from the 70 day period any continuance based on "delay resulting from any pretrial motion," § 3161(h)(1)(F), as well as "findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial." § 3161(h)(8)(A).

The Court finds that the ends of justice served by continuing this trial outweigh the best interest of the public and Mr. Graham in a speedy trial. In support of his Motion to Continue, Mr. Graham represents that his motion to suppress is pending and that there is a second superseding indictment in this case. Mr. Graham represents that additional time is necessary to evaluate the impact of the superseding indictment on the motion to suppress and the case itself.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the defendant's Motion to Continue (Doc. # 46) is GRANTED. Trial in this matter is continued from April 23, 2007, to the criminal term of court beginning on August 6, 2007.

DONE this 27th day of February, 2007.
